Other Comments:

I would like to mention few things that happened within group. One of the group member named "Harsh Kamleshbhai Shah" has been ignorant towards my and Qiwei's opinion or any views/ideas throughout the term. Whenever I contributed my ideas, he does not listens to it and when I draft my document he makes changes to my document without my consent or letting me know. I draft my document letting my team members know about my opinion but harsh does not listen to me at that time and makes changes without letting me know. This made me left out and not be able to share my ideas. I tried to talk about this to my teammates and him but still no change in the behavior.

As this is the end of the term, I just wanted to share my experience with them.

Thankyou.
